NOT UNMINDFUL OF PROTESTS

Grant of Contracts for Foreign Vessels to Carry Coal the Only Hitch Given Consideration-Roosevelt Is Willing to Employ American Ships, but Not at Exorbitant Rates.

Those who talked with President Roosevelt yesterday about the projected voyage of Rear Admiral Evans' great aggregation of battle ships from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast of the United States, found that the President was not to be swerved from his purpose to have the fleet's programme carried out,

He has determined apparently that no stration.

It is understood that the President is there are objections to the cruise on several grounds, among them that it is an ative merits of Northern and Southern unwise move for reasons of international horseback riders. policy. These matters, however, will not serve to dissuade him from his intention to have the fleet start for the Pacific within the next three months.

But the President, from what was said by those in a position to know his views, will not be wholly unmindful of the protests from American shipowners that it vessels of foreign register,
